at 0400 on Saturday 31 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy start with some rain but becoming brighter from north.

Today:
A mostly cloudy start with outbreaks of light rain and drizzle. However brighter, drier conditions edge south this morning to leave a dry afternoon with some good sunny spells developing. The northwesterly breeze will be fresh at times near coasts. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
Some late sunshine then some long clear spells overnight, although northwestern parts likely to become cloudier towards dawn with the odd shower possible. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Sunday:
A bright day with some sunny spells and, while most places will be dry, a few light showers are likely. Mainly light northerly or northwesterly winds. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Clear or sunny spells with just a few showers through Monday and Tuesday. Rather more cloud around on Wednesday with outbreaks of occasionally heavy, perhaps thundery, showery rain spreading east.
